

Call International SOS anytime, anywhere

A medical first call

Jane is on a business trip in Vienna and on her last week of travel, she is three months pregnant and notice there is blood when she goes to the bathroom. She has never been to Vienna before and is not sure what to do. She calls International SOS as instructed by her company.

